11. the school in relation to the Laundromat

- 5- This is Bill's apartment building. He is very happy with it because it is located in a very convenient place. Use the picture to tell your partner about Bill's neighborhood.

6- Draw a simple map of your neighborhood. Take turns with your partner to ask and answer questions about different places. You may use:

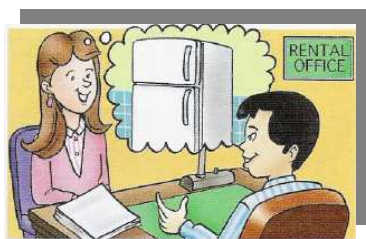

- ✱ bakery
- ✱ a post office
- ✱ a police station
- ✱ a movie theater
- ✱ a library
- ✱ a supermarket
- ✱ a school
- ✱ bank
- ✱ clinic
- ✱ cafeteria
- ✱ a gas station
- ✱ a park

And the question may be: “Is there a bakery in your neighborhood?”

7- Use these conversations as models to create other conversations using the pictures below.

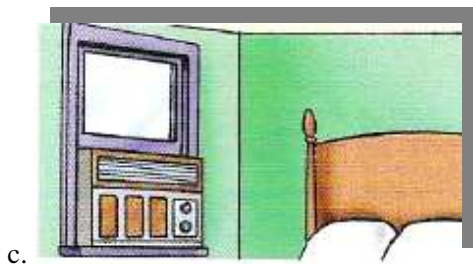

A: Is there a stove in the kitchen?
B: Yes, there is. There's a very nice stove in the kitchen.
A: Oh, good.

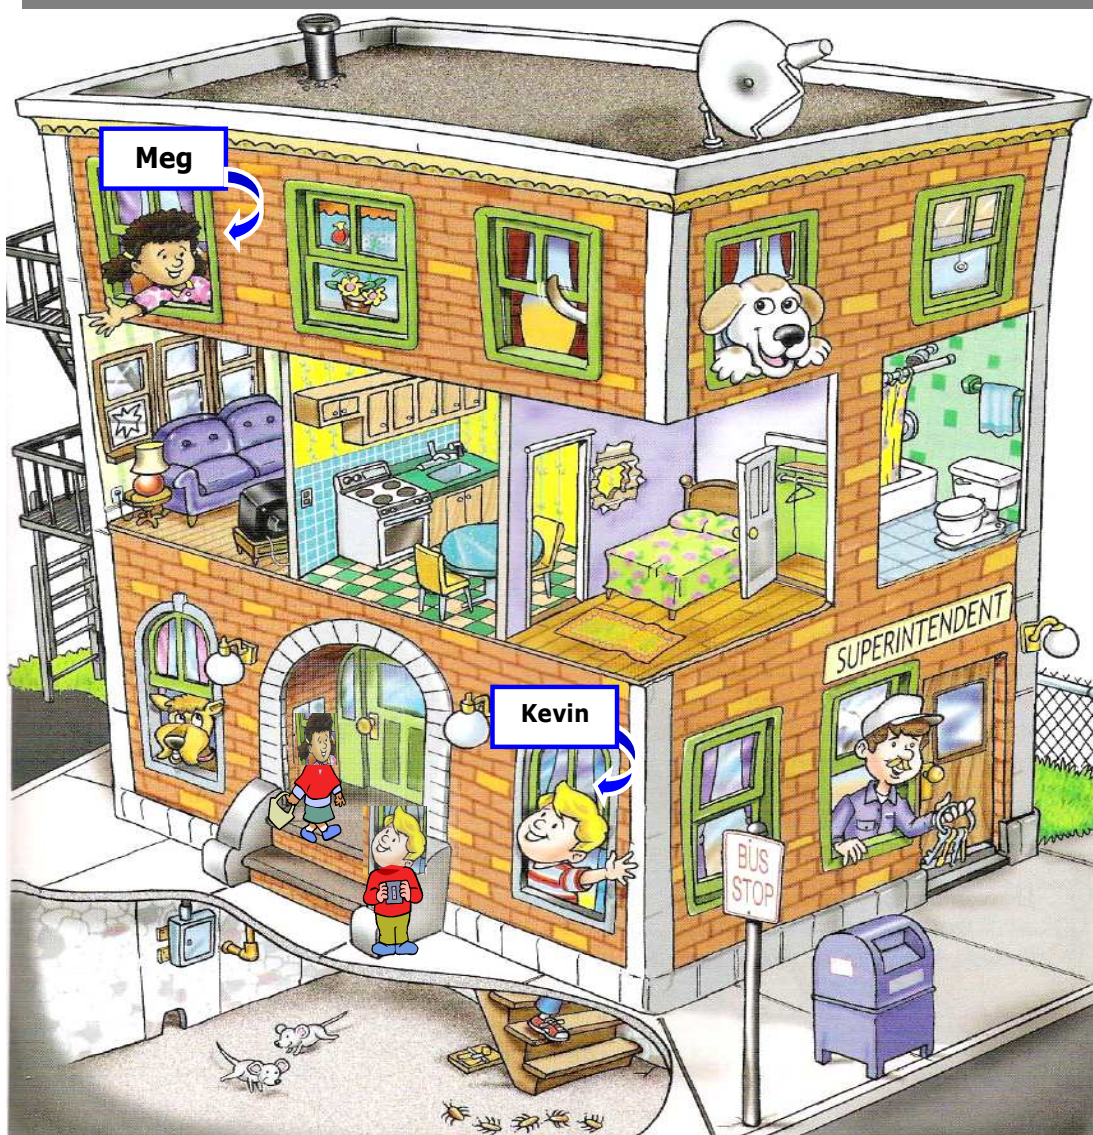

A: Is there a refrigerator in the kitchen?
B: No, there isn't.
A: Oh, I see.

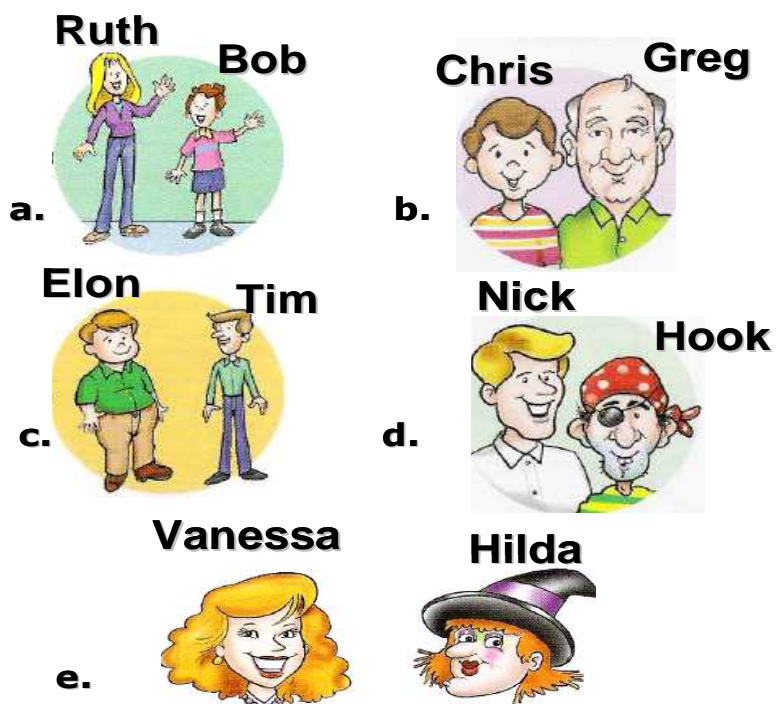

8- Perform Meg and Kevin's roles.

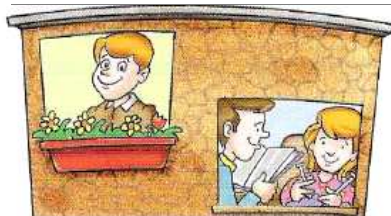

- ☀ Say hi.
- ☀ Agree on meeting at the entrance to the building.
- ☀ Make comments about the building. (Use: nice, comfortable, well-organized, convenient place)
- ☀ Say what your apartment has. (Kevin's apartment is smaller because it has the superintendent's office at the back.)

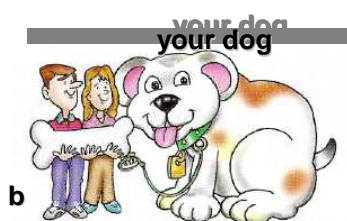

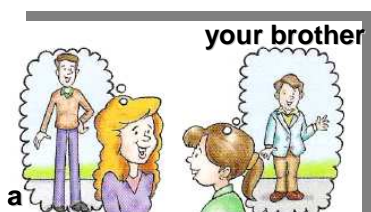

9. What can you say about each people? Take turns with your partner asking and answering the question: “What does s/he look like?”

10- Follow this conversation pattern and use the following pictures to interact with your partner.

A: Tell me about your neighbors. Are they noisy?
B: No they're not. They're very quiet.

11- Read the description of Rick and Mark.

1

a

Who's Rick?
Who's Mark?

My brother Mark and I look very different. I have brown eyes and he has blue eyes. Our hair is brown, but I have short curly hair and he has long straight hair. I'm tall and thin and he is short and heavy.

- b Compare yourself with a member of your family or another student in your class. Tell how different you and this person are.

12- Class survey: Find someone who:
